Angela Ashwin
FAITH IN THE FOOL
Risk and Delight in the Christian Adventure

A leading Christian writer helps us to find creative ways of swimming against the tide of convention for the sake of what is generous, joyful and true. Angela Ashwin shows how wise and holy fools encourage us to free up a little and enjoy life more; remind us that we do not have to be productive or important in order to be valuable; help us to face our limitations and failings; and sit alongside us when we are broken.

Angela Ashwin is a popular author, lecturer and speaker.

Peter Selby
GRACE AND MORTGAGE
The Language of Faith and the Debt of the World. (New Edition)

No book exposed the delusions and fantasies that underpin the world's economic system better than Peter Selby's Grace and Mortgage. It opened many people's eyes to the corrosive effect of debt, which impoverishes the poorest and leads inevitably to the despoiling of the earth, and gave us a new language for understanding the Gospel.

Peter Selby is the President of the National Council for Independent Monitoring Boards. He was previously Bishop of Worcester, Bishop to HM Prisons and a Church Commissioner.

Craig Borlase
2159AD
A History of Christianity

A history of Christianity with a twist: it is written, speculatively, as if from 150 years in the future, so we can learn not only from what has gone before but also from where we might be heading. Every Christian should know the history of their faith, and this brilliantly original book is both an excellent primer and a provocative suggestion of what the future could hold.

Foreword by Maggi Dawn.

Craig Borlase is a writer whose books include God's Gravity, and, with Mike Pilavachi, Live the Life and For the Audience of One.

Henri J. M. Nouwen
HOME TONIGHT

Further Reflections on the Parable of the Prodigal Son

A companion to Nouwen's classic work, The Return of the Prodigal Son, Home Tonight brings to light Nouwen's previously unpublished lectures on the Prodigal Son in a powerful guide for spiritual reflection. Providing exercises, suggestions for times of solitude, questions for pondering, simple prayers, and aides for personal journalling, Home Tonight leads readers to commune with God through spiritual listening. A practical guide for the inner journey home, this important book will give those who adore Nouwen's works the chance to hear his voice anew on his most popular topic.

Henri J. M. Nouwen was a Dutch Roman Catholic priest who left a highly acclaimed academic career to share his life with people with mental disabilities as pastor of L'Arche Daybreak Community, Toronto.

Jessica Rose
CHURCH ON TRIAL

A critical look at the contemporary church. In interviews with a range of people Rose examines what it is about the church that is distinctive, and why people continue to seek it out. In putting the institutional church on trial, she asks the compelling question, 'What is the church for in a world where church-going is marginal, and where for many the church is an increasingly irrelevant institution?'

Jessica Rose is a freelance writer, lecturer and author of Sharing Spaces? Prayer and the Counselling Relationship (DLT 2002) and editor of The Healing Word (DLT 2008).

Roderick Strange
JOHN HENRY NEWMAN:

A Mind Alive:
 Newman is one of the most significant figures of the nineteenth century, renowned for his original mind, and for his profound influence on both Anglicanism and Catholicism. In 2010 he is to be made 'Blessed', a decisive step towards a declaration of sainthood. Yet his personality remains elusive and his legacy is still contested. This elegant study, in a new cased edition, is the best introduction to Newman and his significance to us today.

Roderick Strange is the Rector of the Pontifical Beda College in Rome.

Aidan Nichols
GK CHESTERTON;
THEOLOGIAN

One of the greatest Catholic minds of the twentieth century was a journalist, playwright, novelist, cartoonist, broadcaster and even president of the Detection Club. But he was also a theologian, who draws us into an encounter with the Word of God, showing us the faith of the Church as most of us have never seen it before. Essential reading for anyone who already loves Chesterton and, more importantly, this is a new kind of introduction to theology.

Aidan Nichols OP is a leading Dominican theologian and lecturer at Cambridge University.

Scott Hahn
COVENANT AND COMMUNION

The Biblical Theology of Pope Benedict XVI
 The international best-selling Catholic writer Scott Hahn reveals the hidden key that unlocks the theology of Pope Benedict XVI. His introduction to 'a theology of great power and beauty' is vivid and enthralling.

'Not only students of the theology of Pope Benedict but all of us who desire the revitalization of theology and exegesis should welcome the passion and insight that Hahn has brought to bear on his subject.'

Scott Hahn
SIGNS OF LIFE

Forty Catholic Customs and their Biblical Roots
 The leading Catholic writer Scott Hahn guides readers through the Church's rites, customs and traditional prayers, clearing up common misconceptions and explaining how the Catholic beliefs and practices other Christians often have the most difficulty with – for example, indulgences, candles, the rosary, holy water, the sign of the cross, and guardian angels – are in fact rooted in the Bible.

'These doctrines and devotions are not my invention: they have been confirmed by tradition and they work. They've helped other Catholics down through the centuries mark their way to heaven.'

Scott Hahn

Scott Hahn is professor of theology and Scripture at Franciscan University of Steubenville and is author of over twenty books, including The Lamb's Supper, Reasons to Believe and Signs of Life. More of his work is featured on page 5, just after the order form.

Scott Hahn

Darton, Longman and Todd are very proud to be the UK publishers of one of the world's leading theologians. Scott Hahn's latest titles are Covenant and Communion, an examination of the biblical roots of the theology of Pope Benedict XVI and Signs of Life, an affectionate look at 40 Catholic devotions. Both are available from Darton, Longman and Todd this autumn (see new titles information).

SAINT JEANNE JUGAN

God's Tenderness for the World

Jeanne Jugan is less well known than the congregation of the Little Sisters of the Poor which she founded. A person of great energy and drive, she was removed from the leadership of the congregation she had founded. Without complaint or bitterness she allowed herself to be stripped of what was dearest to her – her work. Her story is revealed in this beautifully illustrated introduction to her life, her work and her distinct spirituality. She was declared a saint in October 2009.

Éloi Leclerc is the author of several books, including The Desert and the Rose: The Spirituality of Jeanne Jugan.

THE GOSPEL IN THE WILLOWS

Forty Meditations based on Kenneth Grahame's The Wind in the Willows

Combining a daily reading from Kenneth Grahame's classic The Wind in the Willows with a gospel passage, a short meditation by Leslie J. Francis and a prayer, this book takes us on a journey through the Christian life. The much-loved characters of Mole, Rat and Toad become the perfect allegory for our grand adventure of faith. The forty-day structure makes this ideal devotional material for Lent, but it can be used at any time of year.

Leslie J. Francis is an Anglican priest, chartered psychologist, and Professor of Practical Theology at the University of Wales, Bangor.

Grace Sheppard

Foreword by Archbishop Desmond Tutu

LIVING WITH DYING

A guide to one of the greatest tests we might all face: to be beside someone we love – a parent, a partner, a child – as they slip away from us. Grace Sheppard draws on the experience of caring for her dying husband, David Sheppard, England cricket captain and later Bishop of Liverpool. She looks at what drives us to run away from the difficult times and emotions. The key to living with dying is friendship. This compassionate and consoling book shows us how to grow and cherish the friendship of Christ, the friendships we enjoy with one another and, finally, the friendship we must learn to cultivate with ourselves.

Grace Sheppard is the author of the bestselling An Aspect of Fear.

J. R. R. Tolkien, translator

Edited with an Introduction by Brendan N. Wolfe

Foreword by Sir Anthony Kenny

THE BOOK OF JONAH

A beautiful new presentation of one of the best-loved Bible stories, translated by J. R. R. Tolkien. Brendan Wolfe tells the little-known story of how Tolkien, then at the height of his fame as the author of The Lord of the Rings, agreed to join the team of Catholic writers and scholars working on a major new translation of the Bible into English in the early 1960s. The result was the Jerusalem Bible, still celebrated for its elegant, timeless English. Wolfe shows the fascinating resonances between the droll story of the reluctant prophet Jonah, swallowed by a giant fish and spat out on the shore of the pagan city of Nineveh, and themes in Tolkien's own writings.

Esther Reed

WORK, FOR GOD'S SAKE

Christian Ethics in the Workplace

'I do not like work, even when someone else does it' Mark Twain is reputed to have remarked. Most of us, however, need paid employment, and for better or worse, work is how we spend much of our lives. But what is the spiritual meaning of work in our lives? Here, Esther Reed sheds light on the meaning and place of work within the Christian tradition and sketches a theological ethic of work in the hope of God's coming kingdom.

Esther Reed is Associate Professor of Theological Ethics in the Department of Theology at the University of Exeter.

TIME TO CHANGE

An Ignatian Retreat in Everyday Life

We all need to make a retreat, to find a few moments in our busy lives to try to stop worrying and fretting about so many different things and to sit in silence at God's feet, so to speak, and just listen. A retreat is simply an attempt to see beyond the 101 cares and occupations we normally have and to ask ourselves, 'Where it is all leading?' Time to Change takes the basic format and principles of The Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius and allows us to make a retreat without interrupting too much our ordinary daily life and all the things we have to do.

Michael Campbell-Johnston SJ worked in El Salvador for many years, is the former Provincial of the British Jesuits and head of the Jesuit Social Justice Secretariat in Rome.

Stanley Hauerwas

A CROSS-SHATTERED CHURCH

Reclaiming the Theological Heart of Preaching

Eminent theologian, Stanley Hauerwas, shows how the sermon is the best context for doing good theology. Bringing together sermons preached over a number of years under the headings 'Seeing', 'Saying', 'Living' and 'Events', Hauerwas reveals what he believes to be some of his best and most important work. 'I hope these sermons will be widely read because, for better or worse, they are my determined attempts to show that sermons can develop strong theological claims and yet be existentially compelling'. A must-have book for anyone interested in understanding what Hauerwas is about.

Stanley Hauerwas (PhD, Yale University) is the Gilbert T. Rowe Professor of Theological Ethics at Duke University in Durham, North Carolina.

THE FAVOURABLE TIME

The CAFOD/Christian Aid Lent Book 2010

The season of Lent is a privileged time of the year. It offers us the opportunity to stand back from our daily activities and cares, and to ask: 'What is the purpose of them all?' Every year in the Christian Aid/CAFOD Lent Book, six writers invite us to dedicate some time each day to listening to the Lord speaking to us through the readings of the day, so that we might draw closer to God through prayer and contemplation, and through the renewal of our lives.
