

In 2020/21 Darton, Longman and Todd will be releasing a large range of new Christian resources – for churches, small groups and individuals alike.

In the tradition of our bestselling annual Lent course come a number of brand new courses for groups and individuals that may be used at any time during the year. These include two new series: How the Bible Can Help Us Understand (with authors including Frank Cottrell-Boyce), which look at the most important issues of our day; and God on TV, which uses the important themes of popular TV shows to focus the mind on questions of faith. In a similar vein, Ineffable Love digs deeper into the Christian themes of the TV adaptation of Good Omens.

One of our most popular Lent courses, From Now On (based on The Greatest Showman), has been adapted into a children's Bible study course, perfect for after-school and holiday clubs.

The author of From Now On, Rachel Mann, returns in November 2020 with her brand new Lent course Still Standing, which is based on the Elton John movie Rocketman. In September, Liam Kelly releases The Glorious Journey a beautiful study guide based on The Two Popes film.

For personal Bible study, try the six-week daily reflections format of Margaret Silf in Soul Journey, or of Henry Martin in Alongside. To dig deeper into the Bible readings of the Catholic Liturgy in this Year of the Word of God, try the new The Sunday Gospels books which will print the weekly gospels from the Mass in full, with accompanying commentary by Fr Adrian Graffy of the Pontifical Biblical Commission.

Fantastic new resources for churches include Fifty Lessons in Ministry by the hugely-respected Paul Beasley-Murray, and advice on extending ministry to the neglected elderly in society in Tina English's A Great Place to Grow Old. The 90th anniversary of the incredible St George's Crypt charity for homeless and vulnerable people in Leeds is celebrated with Entertaining Saints, a remarkable collection of true-life stories by the Crypt's chaplain Roger Quick.

DLT continues its tradition for top-drawer Christian theology and spirituality tuned to the themes and issues of our day, with Grace is Not Faceless by Ann Loades, Encounters by Bishop Rachel Treweek, and Seven Days to Freedom by Bishop John Dudley Davies. In response to the environmental crisis, we will be publishing a new, substantially revised edition of lan Bradley's classic God is Green. In Lighten Our Darkness, Simon Reynolds explores the spirituality of Choral Evensong.

Watch out too for three books written with a broader audience in mind. Bestselling priest Rachel Mann makes her fiction debut with the provocative The Gospel of Eve; a crack team of leading GPs launch their illness-prevention campaign with the mouth-watering Smoothie Doctors recipe book; and for fans of classic children's literature and television drama, the fully-illustrated Opening The Box of Delights will bring some nostalgic Christmas joy.
